

MEMBERSHIP CRITERIA

UTES membership is offered and encouraged to commercial, academic, NGOs establishments and corporations as well as individuals interested in environment and ecology . The designated catchment area for memberships is divided into following categories;

UTES MEMBER GROUPS;

- Educational organizations,
- NGOS, and similar,
- Government, State and similar,
- Environment experts,
- Commercial Institutions,
- Trade Associations,
- Individual membership.

Following the official formation of UTES, the founder members are kindly requested to take an active role in the identification of suitable prospective members whom are expected to serve and contribute into activities of UTES.

Corporate Membership Criteria

The candidate establishment must already have, or in the process of establishing;

- Required policies on sustainable development and environmental protection as well as taking necessary steps to be socially responsible and actively taking a positive step towards current ecological issues,
- Through the use of internationally recognized environmental/social responsibility criteria, encourage/start sustainable impacts in the process/management skills relative to environmental/social responsibility,
- Have capacity to the implement local and/or international environmental/social responsibility projects,
- Allocation of minimum one environmental officer in the company,
- Commitment of maximum attendance to UTES meetings,
- Identify and/or allocation and or resourcing, funding jointly with other establishments where and when necessary in the implementation of UTES specific projects.

Individual Membership Criteria

- Interested or have a desire to be interested in sustainable development, climate change and environmental protection subjects.
- Ready to commit to support the UTES activities and environmental / social responsibility projects on a voluntary basis.

General Terms:

For individual memberships, minimum 18 years old

For British nationals to have a residence permit in country,

For application to membership, two UTES references are needed as well as screening of admission committee for suitability.

Membership fees:

Payable only once at joining

Corporate membership: 500£ / 1500 YTL

Individual memberships: 40£ / 100 YTL